Charles Arthur while he and other settlers helped build a log cabin for their home. One morning a fire broke out, and all that was saved were the bed clothes which the mother had hung outside to air.

When the Bernardos came to Canada, their son, Julius, was only six years old. On November 5, 1896, Julius married Martha Newman of New York. In the early days of their marriage, Julius built and opened a general store which he managed with his wife's help. He was also an automobile dealer.

Bernardo's Store - Julius and daughter, Mary

Julius Bernardo was a taxidermist by trade, and at 86 was still enjoying his work. He was also an ardent hunter and fisherman.

Julius and Martha had ten children, Edward, Sam, Mary, Martha, Esther, Mildred, Eva, Ann, Pearl and Ena. Mrs. Bernardo died in 1962 and Julius in 1963.

Brunne

Charles Brunne and his half-brother, William, were early settlers in Arnstein. Charles registered his land in 1888, several years after he came here.

Charles Brunne married Johannah Weller, sister of Fred Weller, Sr. Their children are Hattie, Annie, Jessie and Charlie.

Hattie Brunne married Bob Clapperton who burned to death in 1907.

Annie Brunne married Charles Berger. Their children are Annie, Edmund, Emma, Alma, Charles, Herb, William, Harold, Fred, Milton, Elsie and Mildred.

Charlie Brunne married Ida Gooley, and Jessie Brunne, who died at a young age, remained single.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brunne, along with most of their family, moved to Michigan.

**********

ARNSTEIN

William Brunne (1850-1918) and Louise Gorsse were married in Heddsedt, Germany. William came to Canada first, with his son, Richard. He succeeded in getting the contract to build the hospital in Parry Sound and was working there when Louise arrived in 1879. They built their log cabin and lived at Glenila for a year, then moved 12 miles north to Arnstein.

William and Louise had eleven children - Wilheim, Richard, Annie, Alvin, Emil, Albert, Edward, John, and three daughters who died early in life. Louise Brunne died in 1947 at age 95.

Wilheim Brunne died September 1, 1911 at Tisdale, Sask.

Richard Brunne was born in Germany in 1876. On June 9, 1909, he married Martha Berger at Arnstein. Their children are Walter, George, Louise, Christina, Bill and Evelyn.

Annie Brunne married Gustave Culin and they raised several foster children. Annie was 91 when she died in 1970.

Alvin Brunne married Bertha Noah and they had four children, Wilfred, Mildred, Ethel and Norman.

Emil Brunne was born on September 1, 1885. He died in 1918 when the flu epidemic swept the country.

Mr and Mrs. William Brunne

Albert Brunne married Christina Hillock. They had three boys, James, Reginald and Ross, and one girl, Florence. Albert Brunne was killed March 15, 1952 when he was crushed by heavy chunks of mica at his mine at Caribou Lake.

Edward Brunne was born December 9, 1889. He married Augusta Culin in 1919 and they had four children, Dorothy, Harry, Betty and Donald.

John David Brunne was born at Arnstein on February 26, 1893. He moved to Toronto where he owned the Red Spot Nut Co. He died at the age of 80.

Christoforetti

Joseph Christoforetti (1849-1911)and his wife, Anna Stier, came to Arnstein from Austria in 1884. They registered their land in 1890 and homesteaded on Clear Lake sideroad.

Joseph Christoforetti had only 65¢ in his pocket when he arrived in Arnstein. He, like many of the early settlers, was unaccustomed to the type of labour which was necessary to make a living in the settlement; with a family to feed, he had to learn quickly. Mrs. Christoforetti was a big strong woman. In the early years, when hay was cut with a scythe, she took the lead - a job considered difficult for a man.

Joseph and Anna had six children, Mary, Paulina, Anthony, Joseph, John and Annie. Mrs. Christoforetti died in 1939.

Mary Christoforetti married Ed Stanurd and they had twelve children. The family moved out west.